Dr. Susanne Mausolf found guilty of unprofessional conduct

Edmonton, AB - Edmonton General Practitioner Dr. Susanne Mausolf has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by a Hearing Tribunal of Alberta's medical regulator, the College of Physicians & Surgeons of Alberta (CPSA).

Dr. Mausolf was accused of failing to respond to the College's print and electronic correspondence on 10 occasions, breaching two terms of resolution she agreed to with the College (dated April 24, 2017 and Aug. 11, 2017), requiring her prompt reply to and cooperation with all College correspondence and recommendations.

Dr. Mausolf's conduct was found to be in violation of the College's Standards of Practice/Canadian Medical Association's Code of Ethics. As a result, the CPSA Hearing Tribunal ordered the following sanctions:

1. Dr. Mausolf will receive a reprimand.
2. Dr. Mausolf will receive a suspension of her practice permit for a period of seven days, to be served within 90 days following the written decision of the Hearing Tribunal and served starting on a date approved in advance by the Complaints Director.
3. Dr. Mausolf will pay hearing costs in full within 90 days of the date of the Order of the Hearing Tribunal (totalling $17,859.88).
